The first system of musical notation consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The music is in 2/4 time and features a series of chords and melodic lines. There are several accents (v) and dynamic markings (f) throughout. The system concludes with two measures marked with a double bar line and a star symbol, with the word 'Tea' written below each measure.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. It includes a first ending bracket labeled '1.' above the treble staff. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns and dynamic markings. The system ends with two measures marked with a double bar line and a star symbol, with the word 'Tea' written below each measure.

The third system of musical notation continues the piece. It features a second ending bracket labeled '2.' above the treble staff. A 'cresc.' (crescendo) marking is present in the middle of the system. The system concludes with two measures marked with a double bar line and a star symbol, with the word 'Tea' written below each measure.

The fourth system of musical notation continues the piece. It features a series of chords and melodic lines. The system concludes with two measures marked with a double bar line and a star symbol, with the word 'Tea' written below each measure.

The fifth system of musical notation is labeled 'TRIO.' on the left side. It features a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The music is in 6/8 time and features a series of chords and melodic lines. The system concludes with two measures marked with a double bar line and a star symbol, with the word 'Tea' written below each measure.
