SIX OLD CHRISTMAS CAROLS

Come, Shepherds, Come

Allegro moderato
A Shepherd

A Tyrolese Carol

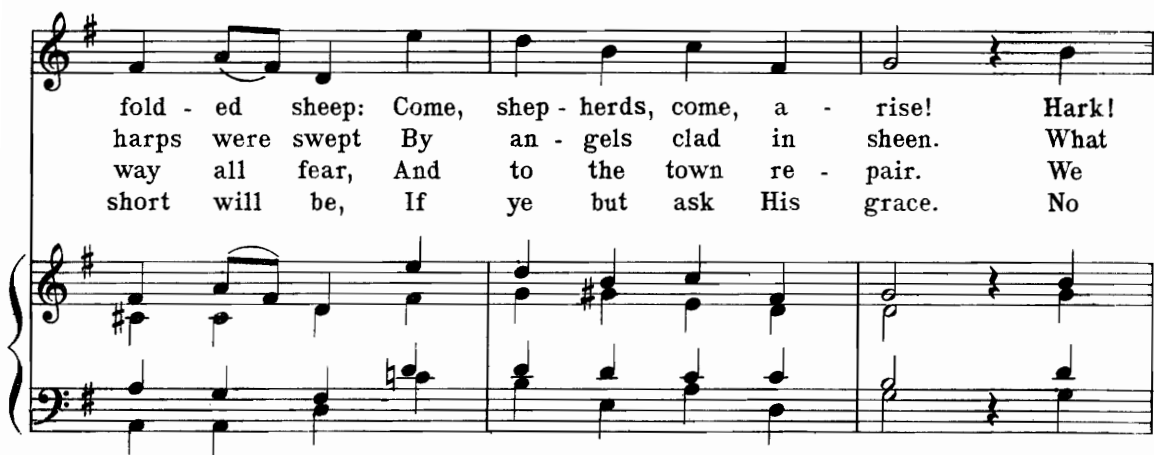

1

1. *Come, shep-herds, come! shake off your sleep, And
2. A-round the hut where-in I slept A
3. We, too, this wel-come news did hear From 4. Then know, all friends, who wish to see Your ope your wear-y eyes; 'Tis time to leave your glow of light was seen, And gold-en strings of an-gels in the air, They bade us cast a sweet Re-deem-er's face, Tho' long, the way full fold-ed sheep: Come, shep-herds, come, a-rise! Hark! harps were swept By an-gels clad in sheen. What way all fear, And to the town re-pair. We short will be, If ye but ask His grace. No

4. Then near the Babe a Goldfinch drew,
 Chirping with mirth Tir-li-chiu-chiu,
Chiu, said the Sparrow in reply,
Palpabat, was the Quail's quick cry.

5. Blackbirds then raised their sweetest notes,
 Warbled the Ljunets' tuneful throats!
 Pigeons all cooed, rou-cou, rou-cou,
 Larks sang with joy, ti-ro-li-rou.

6. Hark how the Greenfinch bears his part;
 Philomel, too, with tender heart,
 Chants from her leafy, dark retreat,
Re, mi, fa, sol, in accents sweet.

7. Angels and shepherds, birds of the sky,
 Come where the Son of God doth lie;
 Christ on the earth with man doth dwell,
 Join in the shout, Noël! Noël!

The Holy Well

Traditional Melody and Words

Moderato

1. As it fell out one May morn-ing, On
 2. Sweet Je - sus went down to yon - der town, As
 3. But they made an - swer to Him, "No," They were one bright ho - li - day, Sweet Je - sus ask'd of far as the Ho - ly Well, And there did see as lords' and la - dies' sons; And He, the mean - est

His dear moth - er, If He might go to play. To fine chil - dren As an - y tongue can tell. He of them all, Was born in an ox - 's stall. Sweet play, to play, sweet Je - sus shall go, And to said, God bless you ev - er - y one, May Je - sus turn - èd Him a - round, And He play now get you gone, And let me hear of Christ your por - tion be; Lit - tle chil - dren, shall I nei - ther laughed nor smil'd, But tears came trick - ling

no com - plaint At night when you come home!
play with you? And you shall play with me!
from His eyes, Like wa - ter from the skies.

4. Sweet Jesus turned Him about,
To His mother's dear home went He,
And said, "I've been in yonder town,
As after you may see.
Yea, I have been in yonder town,
As far as the Holy Well;
There did I meet as fine children
As any tongue can tell.

5. "I bid God bless them ev'ry one,
And Christ their portion be;
Little children, shall I play with you?
And you shall play with me.
But they made answer to me, 'No,'
They were lords' and ladies' sons;
And I, the meanest of them all,
Was born in an ox's stall!"

6. "Though Thou art but a maiden's Child,
Born in an ox's stall,
Thou art the Christ, the King of Heav'n,
The Saviour of them all.
Sweet Jesus, go down to yonder town,
As far as the Holy Well,
And take away those sinful souls,
And dip them deep in hell!"

7. "Nay, nay," sweet Jesus mildly said,
"Nay, nay, that must not be,
There are too many sinful souls
Crying out for the help of Me."
Then spake the Angel Gabriel,
"Upon a good set steven,* Although Thou'rt but a maiden's Child, Thou art the King of Heav'n."

us who this e-ven have come! In the name of sweet Je-su we house not to mock or to brawl; God send a good e-ven to peace and a time of great joy Hath the good Lord pre-pared you from Beth-le-hem un-der the hill, And there did the star that had star o'er the house in the sky; So for us might be driv-en all vout-ly as meet is and right We have sung you our song, and we en-ter your home.

 each and to all.
 heav-en on high.
 led us stand still.
 woe and an-noy.
 bid you good-night.

* In the original German version verses 1, 2 and 6 are marked to be sung by the full chorus (that is, the Three Wise Men together), while verse 4 is sung by the first Wise Man solo, verse 4 by the second, and verse 5 by the third.

The carol collections here listed merit the attention of every clergyman and church musician anxious to have his service or Sunday-school singing instinct with the true spirit of the Nativity.

The "Old French Christmas Carols", edited and harmonized by Kurt Schindler, comprise some of the loveliest of those mediæval Noël's that sing the story of the Christ-birth in music of simple beauty, touched with the tender and reverential humor of a by-gone day—the naïve and pious joy of the peasant among whose simple spiritual verities the Nativity took first place. Mr. Chapman's English versions of the old texts admirably preserve their childlike happiness of expression.

In "Old Christmas Carols," traditional melodies, arranged, harmonized and edited by S. Archer Gibson, the compiler has allowed himself wide latitude in the selection of beautiful carol-melodies; and the two sets include, not only some of the choicest of the old-time English Christmas carols, but, in particular, various traditional airs which, supplied with appropriate texts, rank with the best Christmas carols to be found, as for instance, the old Welsh air, "All thro' the night."

Among these collections the set of "Eight Christmas Carols" by T. Tertius Noble should take high rank. The fervency of an earlier age, when the Christ-birth voiced its appeal to mankind in rhyme and melody of quaint dignity and charm, is here expressed both in music and verse.

The "Six Christmas Carols" by F. Flaxington Harker are not, as is sometimes the case, ditties written hastily and at random "for the occasion." In these little songs of Christmastide the composer has caught the very spirit of joyous exultation that marks the day of the Birth divine.

There are three advantages enjoyed in common by these collections. First, notwithstanding the fact that they are written and intended primarily for unison singing, they can be used for four-part chorus as well. Second, they are without exception easily singable and delightfully tuneful; and, lastly, they are not expensive.
