The first system of music consists of a single treble staff and a grand staff (treble and bass). The treble staff begins with a melodic line featuring a triplet of eighth notes, followed by a phrase marked 'cresc.' and another marked 'dim.' with an accent (>). The system concludes with a half note marked 'p' and the word 'dolen'. The grand staff provides harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines in both hands.

The second system features a grand staff with a steady, rhythmic bass line in the left hand, consisting of eighth notes. The right hand contains chords and rests, providing harmonic support for the overall texture.

The third system includes a treble staff and a grand staff. The treble staff has a melodic line with a triplet and is marked 'cresc.' and 'rall.'. The grand staff continues the accompaniment with a steady bass line and chords in the right hand.

The fourth system is primarily a grand staff. The bass line in the left hand is highly rhythmic and complex, featuring many triplets and sixteenth notes. The right hand contains chords and rests.

The fifth system consists of a treble staff and a grand staff. The treble staff has a melodic line with a triplet and is marked 'p'. The grand staff continues the accompaniment with a steady bass line and chords in the right hand.
