About the artist

I was born and live in Belgrade, Serbia. I go to 6th grade of the music school Josip Slavenski in Belgrade and play the piano. I have won many 1st prizes on various national and international competitions of young pianists and chamber orchestras (as a piano accompanist), and I have also participated in numerous solfeggio competitions, always winning 1st prize and/or the title of laureate

In addition to the school programme which includes famous classical composers, I like identifying chords for complex rock and pop songs. As I have perfect pitch, my favourite game is to transpose voices, sounds such as hoovers, house appliances - mixers and blenders, police and ambulance sirens, and even dogs' barking into notes.

My first composition Belgrade Waltz won 3rd prize on Golden Key Piano Composition Competition 2017. I participated in the recital in Ehrbar Hall in Vienna in August 2017.

"Belgrade Walts" was soon followed by A Spider, a composition inspire... (more online)

About the piece

Title: Rivers of Serbia

Composer: Bugarcic, Tijana

Copyright: Copyright © Tijana Bugarcic

Style: Classical

Comment: I live in Belgrade, the capital of Serbia, which is located on two rivers - the Sava and the Danube, so it was not difficult to me to find inspiration for this composition. It was rather a challenge to transpose the river sounds into music. "Rivers of Serbia" consists of three movements, i.e. three rivers. The third one is the Rzav, a mountain river running through Arilje, my dear aunt's hometown, so "The Rzav" is dedicated to her!
