Comment: "Auld Lang Syne" is a Scottish poem written by Robert Burns in 1788 and set to the tune of a traditional folk song. It is well known in many English-speaking countries and is often sung to celebrate the start of the new year at the stroke of midnight at the start of New Year's Day. The song's Scots title may be translated into English literally as "old long since", or more idiomatically, "long long ago" or... (more online)
