Charles Converse

Musical score for the hymn "What a friend we have in Jesus" by Charles Converse. The score is written in treble clef with a common time signature (C). The melody is presented on two staves. The first staff contains the first seven measures, and the second staff contains the remaining five measures, starting with a measure number '8' at the beginning. Chord symbols are placed above the notes: C, F, C, G, C, F, C, G on the first staff; and C, G, C, F, C, G, C, F, C, G, C on the second staff. The piece concludes with a double bar line.
