Comment:	Christian Gellert's wonderful hymn Jesus Lives, and So Shall I relates the wonderful truth that Christ is risen from the dead, and because of His sacrifice those who believe on Him may have eternal life in Heaven. Exciting news, right? It should be, but these words are commonly set to an incredibly dull tune by Johann Cruger, a German composer with very little talent from the 1600s. His funeral-like tune to this piece completely misses the jo... (more online)
