Comment:	Rousing arrangement of He Is Able to Deliver Thee, perfect for prelude, offertory, or other special music. Hello again, everybody, and sorry for the delay in posting the last few weeks. I was finishing up a set of hymns that were still under copyright, so I wasn't able to share those. Now I'm back to working on free ones, though! Originally, I intended to start working on the James McGranahan collection, but I got this one mixed up with The B... (more online)

The image displays a piano score for the piece "He Is Able to Deliver Thee". It is organized into five systems, each labeled "Pno." on the left. Each system consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on top and a bass clef on the bottom. The first system starts at measure 72 and ends at 74. The second system starts at measure 75 and ends at 77. The third system starts at measure 78 and ends at 80. The fourth system starts at measure 81 and ends at 83. The fifth system starts at measure 84 and ends at 86. The music features a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 3/4 time signature. It includes various musical notations such as triplets, slurs, accents (>), and dynamic markings like fff and sva. There are also some vertical lines in the bass staff of the fourth system, possibly indicating a page turn or a specific performance instruction.

*Take as much time as necessary to make these jumps, to end of piece.

The image shows a piano accompaniment score for the hymn "He Is Able to Deliver Thee". It consists of two systems of piano (Pno.) parts, each with a treble and bass clef staff. The first system starts at measure 87 and ends at measure 90. The second system starts at measure 91 and ends at measure 94. The score includes various musical notations such as triplets, dynamic markings like fff, and performance instructions like 8va and *. The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Make sure fingers are set above these notes before playing, even if it means a delay.
