The first system of the piano score consists of two staves. The right-hand staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 3/4 time signature. The music starts with a piano (p) dynamic and a dolente (sorrowful) marking. The left-hand staff begins with a bass clef and a piano (p) dynamic. The system concludes with a cresc. (crescendo) marking.

The second system continues the piano score. The right-hand staff features a melodic line with a ff (fortissimo) dynamic marking. The left-hand staff provides harmonic support with chords and a ff dynamic marking.

The third system of the piano score shows the right-hand staff with a melodic line and the left-hand staff with a steady accompaniment of chords.

The fourth system of the piano score features a p (piano) dynamic and a dolente marking in the right-hand staff. The left-hand staff continues with a piano (p) dynamic accompaniment.

The fifth system of the piano score includes a cresc. (crescendo) marking in the right-hand staff and a ff (fortissimo) dynamic in the left-hand staff.

The sixth and final system of the piano score shows the right-hand staff with a melodic line and the left-hand staff with a chordal accompaniment.

The first system of music consists of two staves. The treble staff begins with a series of eighth-note chords, followed by a melodic line with a dynamic marking of p (piano). The bass staff provides a rhythmic accompaniment with chords and rests.

The second system continues the piece. The treble staff features a melodic line with a dynamic marking of p. The bass staff continues with a steady accompaniment of chords.

The third system shows the treble staff with a melodic line and a dynamic marking of cresc. (crescendo). The bass staff continues with its accompaniment.

The fourth system features a treble staff with a melodic line and a dynamic marking of f (forte). The bass staff continues with its accompaniment.

The fifth system shows the treble staff with a melodic line and a dynamic marking of p. The bass staff continues with its accompaniment.

The sixth system features a treble staff with a melodic line and a dynamic marking of p. The bass staff continues with its accompaniment.

The first system of the score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a series of chords and some melodic fragments. The lower staff is in bass clef and features a steady accompaniment of chords. A dynamic marking of ff (fortissimo) is placed above the first measure of the bass staff.

The second system continues the piece. The upper staff shows more melodic development with some slurs. The lower staff maintains its accompaniment. A dynamic marking of p (piano) is placed above the first measure of the bass staff.

The third system features a prominent melodic line in the upper staff with a slur and a fermata. The lower staff continues with chords. A dynamic marking of più f (pizzicato forte) is placed above the first measure of the bass staff.

The fourth system shows a continuation of the melodic and accompanimental themes. A dynamic marking of ff is placed above the first measure of the bass staff.

The fifth system continues the musical development. The upper staff has a melodic line with slurs, and the lower staff has a consistent accompaniment.

The sixth system concludes the piece. The upper staff has a melodic line with slurs, and the lower staff has a consistent accompaniment. The system ends with a double bar line and a final chord.
