

14725-m

RE COPY DELIVERED TO THE
JUN 8 - 1900
Music Department.

Respectfully Inscribed to the American People.

GARFIELD.

Hymn Anthem, or Sacred Quartette.

A NATION'S TRIBUTE OF MOURNING FOR ITS DECEASED

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

FRANK N. SCOTT.

MIXED, 25.

MALE, 25.

WHITE, SMITH & COMPANY,

BOSTON, MASS.

CHICAGO, ILL.

516 WASHINGTON STREET.

188 & 190 STATE STREET.

Copyrighted 1881.

J. E. Shanks, Printer, 50 Broad St., Boston.

Respectfully dedicated to the American People.

GARFIELD.

A NATION'S TRIBUTE OF SORROW FOR ITS DECEASED PRESIDENT.

Sacred Quartette for Mixed Voices

Written and Composed by

FRANK N. SCOTT.

Andante, mp
TENOR.

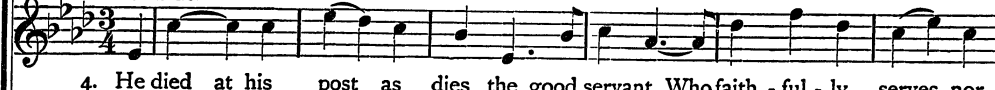

1. Co - lum - bia, mourn for your statesman de - part - ed, Weep for the loss of your
2. Closed is the eye, whose glance, ev - er cheering, In - dexed the warm heart

ALTO.

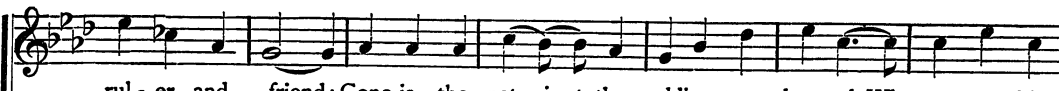

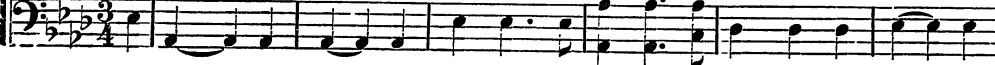

3. Stopp'd is the pulse which throbb'd for the na - tion, Know - ing no weakness,

SOPRANO.

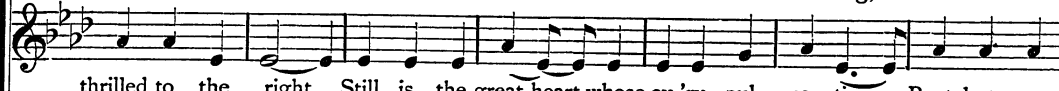

4. He died at his post as dies the good servant, Who faith - ful - ly serves, nor

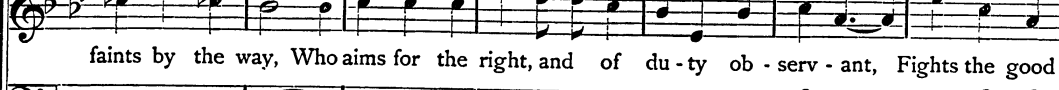

BASS.

rul - er and friend; Gone is the pat - ri - ot, the soldier strong hearted, Who gave you his beat - ing with - in; Si - lent the tongue, whose accents en - dear - ing, Ev - er in thrilled to the right, Still is the great heart whose ev - 'ry pul - sa - tion, Beat but to faints by the way, Who aims for the right, and of du - ty ob - serv - ant, Fights the good

Copyright, 1881, by WHITE, SMITH & Co.

4,188-2.

all, the right to de-fend, Break forth in sor-row and pas-sion-ate kindness were breathed but to win, Cold is the hand ev-er thine to sus-serve her with hon-or and might Shroud-ed in death, the form grand in fight nor shrink from the fray. Dead! no, not dead, but liv-ing in weep-ing, Grieve for the life that for-ev-er hath fled, Mourn for the tain thee, In peace, as in war, with pen, or with steel, Nerve-less the beau-ty Which stood like a rock thee and dan-ger be-tween, Dead is the sto-ry, Rest-ing from toil, and from du-ty well done, He lives and will pure spi-rit, qui-et-ly sleep-ing, Weep and la-ment your il-lus-tri-ous dead arm that will nev-er a-gain be Raised in thy ser-vice, blows stalwart to deal.

brain which, knowing but du-ty, Ear-nest-ly labored, with heart and hand clean.
still ev-er live in bright glo-ry, In spi-rit re-ceiv-ing the joy he hath won.

C. A. WHITE'S

Popular Waltz Songs.

Arranged for PIANO-FORTE.

My Love's a Rover.....	$.60
When the Leaves Begin to Turn. Waltz Brilliante.	.60
A Bird From O'er the Sea. Waltz Brilliante65
Moonlight on the Lake March.....	.50
The Huntsman's Horn. Waltz Brilliant60
When 'tis Moonlight. Waltz Brilliant50
When 'tis Starlight. Waltz Brilliant50
When the Leaves Begin to Turn. Transcription ..	.75

By Chas. D. Blake.

WHITE, SMITH & CO.,

CHICAGO:
188 & 190 State St.

BOSTON:
516 Washington St.