Blessed morning.

No 3.

Moderato.

Blessed dawning Blessed morning When the Sav - ior meek and mild In a manger, Lit - tle stranger, Came to earth, a lit - tle child Raise we now in a - dor - a - tion, Songs of glad - ness and love; Let our shouts of ex - ul - ta - tion Pierce the heav - ens a - bove: Blessed dawning. Of the morning. When the Sav - ior came to earth. Neath his ban - ner. Shout Ho - san - na! Ce - le -

1. brat - ing. his birth. 2. - brat - - ing his birth.

2.
 May the dawning,
 Of the morning,
 When his star first shed its ray
 Send its shining,
 No'er declining,
 To our happy hearts to-day
 Then our songs shall rise the higher,
 Breathing gladness and love,
 Till they join thiangetic choir
 Piercing heaven above
 Blessed dawning etc.
