

WHIP-POOR-WILL.

Frederick Manley.

W. W. Gilchrist.

Whippoor-

1. The ves-per sparrow now has sung His farewell to the
 2. A vagabond that shuns the way His woodland breth'ren
 3. The children tuck'd in bed can hear The plaintive trem-u - will, whip-poor, whip-poor-will, day, The whisp'ring breeze of night has swung The birds to sleep on bough and keep, Who trusts to chance from day to day, Who holds the rights of bird - ies lo, And Bil - ly thinks he says, "O dear," Be - cause in day-light he must

Whip-poor - will, Whip-poor, whip-poor, whip-poor, whip-poor, whip-poor - will, spray; . . . But from the val - ley and the cheap; . . . The nests he steals when-e'er he go . . . To sleep while oth - ers play and

WHIP-POOR-WILL.

whip-poor-will, pp whip-poor-will,

hill . . . There comes a voice, a bro-ken lay, And "Whip-poor-will" it will, . . . The rest he breaks when oth-ers sleep, With "Whip-poor-will" sung trill, . . . And on-ly wake when things are drear; "I wish," says Bill, "some

hill . . . There comes a voice, a bro-ken lay, And "Whippoorwill" it will, . . . The rest he breaks when oth-ers sleep, With "Whippoorwill" sung
trill, . . . And on-ly wake when things are drear; "I wish," says Bill, "some whip-poor-will, Whip-poor-will, Poor whip-poor-will, Whip-poor-seems to say, "Poor whippoorwill, poor whippoorwill, whip-poor-will, loud and deep, "Poor whippoorwill, poor whippoorwill, whip-poor-will,

bird would hear And play with Will, poor whippoorwill, whip-poor-will,

seems to say, "Poor whippoorwill, poor whippoorwill, whip-poor-will,
loud and deep, "Poor whippoorwill, poor whippoorwill, whip-poor-will,
bird would hear And play with Will, poor whippoorwill, whip-poor-will,

whip-poor-will, whip-poor, whip-poor, whip-poor, whip-poor, whip-poor-will.

whip-poor-will, whip-poor-will, whip - - poor-will."

whip-poor-will, whip-poor, whippoor, whip - - poor-will."