

Old English Carol
Works from Mary Segar's 'Medieval Anthology'

A Carol
A Dream of Christmas C.F. 71514 - Music by Gustav von Holst

Andante

Voice

Piano

5 7 5

The other night I saw a sight
So fresh she sought full fast about her
No thing my spouse do in the house

All in my sleep: Mary that may she sang 'lullay' and sore did weep.
Son from cold: Joseph said: 'Life, my joy my life' Say what ye would Unto my pang: my son a bring that made all thing lieth in hay.

mf

Ah my dear!

Ah my dear Son! said Lady Mary Ah my dear! Kiss thy mother Jesu With a cres

cres

(Repartee) Laughing cheer. (Repartee) Mother dear Amen! your head now be still Calvary that is so high there shall I be,

Meno Mosso

Meno Mosso

* Lullay = Lullaby

fz sl

Thus for to lie It is soothly My Father's Will. Ah my dear! Ah my dear Son! Paid Man to restore Nailed full sore On to a tree.

sl

Lady Mary Ah my dear! Kiss thy mother Jesu with a laughing cheer.

2 light parts light heavy part

Tonic Solfa Edition price