The first system of the musical score consists of a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in G major and 4/4 time, with a melody of quarter and eighth notes. The piano accompaniment features a simple harmonic structure with chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

Queen was in the lar - der eat - ing bread and ho - ney, The maid was in the gar - den

The second system continues the musical score. The vocal line follows the same melodic pattern as the first system. The piano accompaniment includes dynamic markings such as f and ff, and uses slurs to indicate phrasing across several measures.

hanging out the clothes, came a lit - tle black - bird and nipped off her nose!

The third system concludes the vocal part of the piece. The piano accompaniment features a more active melodic line in the right hand, with accents and slurs. The system ends with a double bar line.

The fourth system is a piano solo, continuing the accompaniment from the previous system. It features a complex rhythmic pattern in the right hand and a steady bass line in the left hand. The system ends with a double bar line.
