

LA MARSEILLAISE

NATIONAL ANTHEM OF FRANCE

English version by Florence Attenborough

ROUGET de L'ISLE

Arranged by
I. BERGÉ

Tempo di marcia

mf

1. A-rise, ye chil-dren of the na - tion, The day of glo-ry now is
2. With-in the tomb our-selves must en - ter, When all our old-est are at 3. That sa-cred love, the love of coun - try, Spurs on a - fresh our eag-er

mf

cresc.

here! — See the hosts of dark op - pres - sion, — Their bloodstained ban - ners rest; — We shall find their dust re - pos - ing — Trace the vir - tues each pos - arms, — And for conquest and for free - dom, — We — dare the vast a - cresc.

mf

rear, Their blood-stained ban - ners — rear; Do ye not heed? roar - ing the sest, Trace the vir - tues — each pos - sest; Then, then shall we, jeal - ous of larms! We — dare the — vast a - larms! Speed - i - ly then, crown - ing he -

f mf

ty - rants go,            Scat - ter - ing homes and            peace;            Our hon - our yet,            Shrink not to share their            grave,            For ro - ic deed,            Tri - umph shall lift each            head,            And sons, our comrades face the foe,            The wounds of war in - crease. pride, o'er - com - ing vain re - gret,            A - veng - es still the brave! our one flag fly proudly o'er            The liv - ing and the dead!

To arms!    Y e warriors all!            Your bold    bat - tal - ions call!            March

cresc.
 on, ye free,            Death shall be ours            Or glo - rious lib - er - ty cresc.            ff            D. C.