

I Wanna See

Words by Barbara Leeds, Music by Charles Davis

It's Christmas Eve.
I know I should be sleeping.
It's Christmas Eve.
And I should be sound asleep.
My mother said
That it's time to be in bed.
But I don't wanna sleep;
I wanna see.

I wanna see [I wanna see]
When the jolly man in red
And the reindeer and the sleigh,
They are flying overhead.
I wanna see [I wanna see]
When he's kneeling by the tree
And he's putting out presents
For my brothers and me.

I wanna see. [I wanna see]
I wanna see. [I wanna see]
With my own eyes, [See]
My very own eyes, [See]
I wanna see. [I wanna see.]
I wanna see. [I wanna see.]

I wanna see [I wanna see]
When he finds the cookie tray,
And he tries 'em, then he rises
Up the chimney to the sleigh.
I wanna see [I wanna see]
When he's back up in the sky,
And he's flying with the reindeer,
And he's waving goodbye.

I wanna see. [Mother said]
I wanna see. ["Go to bed]
With my own eyes, [Sleep]
My very own eyes.... [Sleep"]
I wanna....

It's Christmas morning.
The cookies have been eaten.
It's Christmas morning.
There are presents by the tree.
I slept right through.
I missed old You-Know-Who.
Ooh! Something there for me!
I wanna see.
