

LAST STARLESS NIGHT

Germain Frederic Santarelli

A/ the love moving away in the starless night, the doubt that haunts me will no let me to control my mind

A'/ tomorrow with light doesn't matter the stars, and my new feeling will change all in my thinking.

B/ your lie every day offend me,
and has no meaning,

B'/as you don't never want to repent,
I will ignore your being

C/ you know I am now out of your life,
I don't know what happened to you,
Because no feeling enliven you

C'/ you killed the love I had for you, but I cannot return to you, and the story is well ended

D/ you cry in the night
despite you know well, I never conform to the great treason of the lie, that killed all my illusions

D'/ repeat D
