I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen.

Words and Music by THOMAS P. WESTENDORF.

With Feeling

1. I'll take you home again, Kathleen,
   Across the ocean wild and wide,
   To where your heart has ever been,
   Since that thy old friends welcome thee.

2. I know you love me, Kathleen, dear,
   Your heart was ever fond and true;
   I always feel when you are near,
   And when that thy old friends welcome thee.

First you were my bonny bride,
Life holds nothing dear but you.
Living heart will cease to yearn.

The roses all have left your Smiles that once you gave to
Laughing little silver

Check, me,
I've watched them fade away and die;
I scarce ever see them now,
Beside your mother's humble cot,

Thou
And

Voice is sad when e'er you speak,
Many, many times I see
Brightest rays of sunshine gleam,

And tears dim your loving eyes.
A dark shaggy on your brow.
There all your grief will be forgot.
CHORUS.

Oh! I will take you back, Kath-leen, To where your heart will feel no pain,

And

Oh! Take you back, Kath-leen, Heart will feel no pain, when the fields are fresh and green, I'll take you to your home a-gain.

Fields are fresh and green, Take you to your home a-gain, home a-gain.

Fields are fresh and green, Take you to your home a-gain, home a-gain.
