J. G. ALBRECHTSBERGER
(1736-1809)

(un pò mosso)

The first system of the musical score, consisting of two staves (treble and bass clef). The key signature is one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is common time (C). The piece begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, including a triplet of eighth notes. The left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines, also featuring a triplet of eighth notes. The system concludes with a fermata over the final notes.

The second system of the musical score, starting at measure 5. It continues the melodic and harmonic development from the first system. The right hand has a more active role with sixteenth-note passages and triplets. The left hand maintains a steady accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The system ends with a fermata.

The third system of the musical score, starting at measure 9. This system features more complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth-note runs and triplets in both hands. The right hand has a more prominent melodic role. The left hand continues to support the melody with chords and moving lines. The system concludes with a fermata.
