THE FOOL

A NEW DAY IS BEGINNING

EIGHT-ROSES

1st STROPHE

A new day is beginning. Summertime, 5 o'clock.
In the streets I hear melodies of love. It's the birds that wake me up.
To try to go on sleeping. A fool that I would be.
I stand up and follow the singing that leads me to the rooftop of the house.

REFRAIN

I was a fool. That I thought I could live here without you.
Live my life like others, blind without you. I was a fool.
I was a fool. That I thought I could feel love without you.
Live my life without the light, now that I found you. I was a fool.

2nd STROPHE

A new day is beginning. Summertime, 7 o'clock.
The alarmclocks of the city start loud ringing, so birds stop singing shocked.
The town wakes up from sleeping. Not knowing what they missed.
Take breakfast fast and go working. But honestly, they never did wake up.

REFRAIN

3rd STROPHE

A new day is beginning. Summertime, 5 o'clock.
Like everyday, it's the singing of the birds that wake me up.
I wake up all the people who are living in the house.
Try to explain them what they are missing.
Come with me to the rooftop of the house.

REFRAIN

4th STROPHE

A new day is beginning. Summertime, 7 o'clock.
The people say I am crazy. Let us sleep, don't waste your time for this.
My parents say stop dreaming. Stand up like everybody else.
Live your life like all the others, that's the way life is.
