About the artist

I've always had a great passion for Irish music : songs above all but dances, too (jigs, reels, hornpipes, & so on); I love, as thirty years ago, the Chieftains, De Dannan, Clannad, Loreena Mac Kennit... I practice Irish set-dancing and French traditional dances (bourrées, waltzes of all kind, mazurkas, rondeus of south-west of France, & so on).

I was a member of two medieval groups that interpreted songs of trouvères, troubadours, Guillaume de Machaut, Adam de la Halle, Cantigas de Santa Maria, & so on.

I studied harmony that allow me to compose. First, I was a teacher in nursery schools and I wrote children songs. I also created videos for children., created with Illustrator & I-Movie.

Qualification: Irish singing & dancing at the Irish Association of Paris, medieval singing, medieval fiddle, rebec studied at the Medieval Centre of Paris, baroque music in the Conservatoire of Reims.

Associate: SACEM

ON THE HILLS OF ISLE AU HAUT

It's away unto the westward there's a place a man should go
Where the fishing's always easy
And they've got no ice or snow

Chorus:

But I'll haul down the sail
Where the bays come together
Bide away the days
On the hills of Isle au Haut

The Plymouth girls are fine
They put their hearts in your hand
And the Plymouth lads are able
First class sailors every man

The trouble with old Martin
You don't try her in the trawler
For those Bay of Biscay swells
They'd roll your head from off your shoulders
