Aria from the Goldberg Variations for Flute, Clarinet & Cello (BWV 988) Bach, Johann Sebastian

About the artist

I'm a software engineer. Basically, I'm computer geek who loves to solve problems. I have been developing software for the last 25+ years but have recently rekindled my love of music.

Many of my scores are posted with individual parts and matching play-along however, this is not always practical. If you would like individual parts to any of my scores or other specific tailoring, please contact me directly and I will try to accommodate your specific needs.

| Comment:         | The Goldberg Variations (BWV 988) is a work written for harpsichord by Johann Sebastian Bach, consisting of an aria and a set of 30 variations. First published in 1741, the work is considered to be one of the most important examples of variation form. The Variations are named after Johann Gottlieb Goldberg, who may have been the first performer. Rather unusually for Bach's works, the Goldberg Variations were published in his own lifetime, in 174... (more online) |
