

First system of a musical score in 3/4 time, featuring a treble and bass clef. The key signature has four flats. The system includes a repeat sign with first and second endings. A fermata is placed over the first ending. The word "Ped." is written below the bass clef staff, with a flower-like symbol above it.

Second system of the musical score. It continues the melody and accompaniment. A fermata is placed over the first ending of the treble staff. The word "Ped." is written below the bass clef staff, with a flower-like symbol above it.

Third system of the musical score. It continues the melody and accompaniment. A fermata is placed over the first ending of the treble staff. The word "Ped." is written below the bass clef staff, with a flower-like symbol above it.

Fourth system of the musical score. It begins with a repeat sign and first/second endings. The word "Ped." is written below the bass clef staff, with a flower-like symbol above it.

Fifth system of the musical score. It continues the melody and accompaniment. The word "Ped." is written below the bass clef staff, with a flower-like symbol above it.

First system of musical notation. It consists of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature has four flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat, D-flat). The time signature is 4/4. The music features a melody in the treble staff and a bass line in the bass staff. Both staves have the marking "And." written below them. The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes, while the bass line features a mix of quarter and eighth notes with some slurs.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It maintains the same key signature and time signature as the first system. The melodic and bass lines continue with similar rhythmic patterns and phrasing.

Third system of musical notation, concluding the piece. It features a double bar line with repeat dots at the end of both staves, indicating the end of the section. The notation continues with quarter and eighth notes in both staves.
