"Heart of Oak" is the official march of the Royal Navy of the United Kingdom.
It is also the official march of several Commonwealth navies, including the Royal Canadian Navy and the Royal New Zealand Navy.

It was also the official march of the Royal Australian Navy, but has now been replaced by the new march, "Royal Australian Navy".

The music of "Heart of Oak" was composed by William Boyce, and the words were written by the 18th-century English actor David Garrick. "Heart of Oak" was originally written as part of an opera. It was first played publicly on New Year's Eve of 1760, sung by Samuel Thomas Champnes, one of Handel's soloists, as part of Garrick's pantomime Harlequin's Invasion, at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane.

HEART OF OAK.

(Words by David Garrick. Music by D^r Boyce, 1759.)

Moderato.

Come, cheer up, my lads, 'tis to glo-ry we steer, To add something more to this won-der-ful year, To hon-our we call you, as free men, not slaves, For who are so free as the sons of the waves?
Heart of oak are our ships, heart of oak are our men: We al-ways are ready. Steady, boys, steady, We'll fight and well conquer a - marcato

gain and a-gain.

II

We ne'er see our foes, but we wish them to stay;
They never see us, but they wish us away:
If they run, why, we follow, and run them ashore,
For, if they won't fight us, we cannot do more.

Heart of oak, &c.

III

We'll still make them fear, and we'll still make them flee,
And drub 'em on shore, as we've drubb'd 'em at sea:
Then cheer up, my lads, with one heart let us sing,
Our soldiers, our sailors, our statesmen, our king.

Heart of oak, &c.
