About the artist

Let me start off by saying that my name is Jeremy Newton and I have been playing the piano for almost three years now. My musical "Journey" started when I was in the sixth grade, first year of middle school, and like most schools it had a band program. I started out playing the Trumpet and about halfway through the year I switch to the French Horn to this day I continue to play the French Horn. I have been in the South Carolina Region Band for two years, and the 2008 Winthrop Invitational Band Clinic at Winthrop University in Rock Hill, South Carolina. I was also nominated for the Winthrop Starts program but I chose not to attend. (I regret that today) It was in the sixth grade that I at first taught myself to play the piano. I started taking piano lessons that following summer and continue to take piano lessons.
