My melancholy baby Burnett, Ernie

About the artist

Im a, now retired, ex-music teacher in music high school, but still in activity like a choir director, singer, pianist accompanist, arranger and, at times a few, composer too. Very involved in what's all about vocal music, whatever the styles, especially when it's polyphonic or choral works because I think music allows to mix people together with an aim of beauty to perform. Even if my arrangements are free, I'd be very glad for backwards positive remarks. Thanks for that.

Qualification: I've achieved several various music teacher certificates

Come, sweet heart mine, don't sit and pine,
tell me of the cares that make you feel so blue.
What have I done, answer me, hon'?'
Have I ever said an unkind word to you?
My love is true and, just for you,
I'd do almost anything at any time.
Dear, when you sigh or, when you cry,
something seems to grip this very heart of mine.
Birds in the trees whispering breeze should not fall to lull you into peaceful dreams.
So, tell me why sadly you sigh,
sitting at the window when the pale moon beams.
You shouldn't grieve: try and believe,
life is always sunshine when the heart beats true.
Be of good cheer, smile through your tears,
when you're sad, it makes me feel the same as you.

Come to me, my melancholy baby,
cuddle up and don't be blue.
All your fears are foolish fancy, may-be;
you know, dear, that I'm in love with you.
Ev'ry cloud must have a silver lining:
wait until the sun shines through.
Smile, my honey, dear, while I kiss away each tear or, else, I shall be melancholy too.
