The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. Both staves have a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The music features a complex rhythmic pattern with many beamed notes, suggesting a fast tempo. The melody in the treble staff moves in a generally upward direction, while the bass staff provides a steady accompaniment.

The second system continues the piece with the same two-staff format and key signature. The rhythmic complexity is maintained with dense beaming and intricate melodic lines in both staves.

The third system shows further development of the musical theme. The treble staff continues its melodic ascent, while the bass staff maintains its accompaniment role with rhythmic precision.

The final system of music concludes the piece. It features a double bar line at the end of the first measure, followed by a final chord in both staves. The treble staff has a chord of F major (F, A, C) and the bass staff has a chord of B-flat major (B-flat, D, F).
