Comment:	Alternate tune for O Little Town of Bethlehem. Walford Davies may be virtually unknown today, but he was all the rage in Great Britain in the early part of the 20th Century. Best remembered for his hymns today, Davies also wrote three symphonies, many other orchestral compositions, and several violin sonatas. Following the death of Edward Elgar in 1934, Davies was named the Master of the King's Music, a post which he held under Georges V and VI u... (more online)
