This musical score consists of ten systems of music, each representing two measures. The systems are numbered 23, 25, 27, 29, 31, 33, 35, 37, and 39. Each system contains a treble clef staff with a melodic line and a bass clef staff with a bass line. The melodic lines feature eighth-note patterns, often with slurs and accents. The bass lines consist of single notes, some with stems pointing downwards. The key signature changes from one system to the next, starting with one flat (B-flat) and moving through various combinations of sharps and flats.

7 Préludes pour Guitare, n°4

This musical score consists of ten staves, each representing a system of two staves (treble and bass clef). The measures are numbered 41 through 58. The notation includes treble clefs, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 3/4 time signature. The music features a complex rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. The bass line consists of a steady sequence of quarter notes. Measure 41 starts with a treble clef and a B-flat key signature. Measures 43, 45, 47, 49, 51, 53, 55, and 57 show various key signature changes, including B-flat, B-natural, and C major. Measure 58 returns to B-flat. The piece concludes with a final double bar line at the end of measure 58.
