Allegretto

Piano

The first system of the musical score is for piano. It consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, with a grand staff bracket on the left. The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is 3/4. The music begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The melody in the treble clef features a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some notes beamed together. The bass clef provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes. There are fermatas over the final notes of the first and third measures.

14

The second system of the musical score continues from the first. It consists of two staves, treble and bass clef. The key signature and time signature remain the same. The melody in the treble clef continues with eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass clef accompaniment remains consistent. There are fermatas over the final notes of the first and third measures.

28

The third system of the musical score continues from the second. It consists of two staves, treble and bass clef. The key signature and time signature remain the same. The melody in the treble clef continues with eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass clef accompaniment remains consistent. There is a fermata over the final note of the third measure.

39

The fourth system of the musical score continues from the third. It consists of two staves, treble and bass clef. The key signature and time signature remain the same. The melody in the treble clef continues with eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass clef accompaniment remains consistent. There is a fermata over the final note of the third measure.
