About the piece

Title:	Hosanna to the Living Lord!
Composer:	Dykes, John Bacchus
Arranger:	Zisi, Matthew
Copyright:	Copyright © Matthew Zisi
Instrumentation:	Piano solo
Style:	Hymn
Comment:	The author of this hymn, Reginald Heber, is best known for his classic Holy, Holy, Holy! In 1811, he wrote a letter to the Christian Observer in which he lamented that hymns seemed to take divine things for granted and promised to rectify this as much as he could. With that letter was attached a copy of this hymn. He revised it in 1827, and the revised version (here) is what is most commonly used today. With another great tune by John B. Dykes ... The image shows a piano accompaniment for the piece "Hosanna to the Living Lord!". It begins at measure 48. The music is written for piano (Pno.) in a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The score consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. Both staves start with a single chord marked with an accent (^). This is followed by a fermata over the chord, and then a final bar line.
