Fugue à deux Flûtes à Bec

andré Le Gall

The image displays a musical score for a fugue for two flutes. The score is written in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 3/4 time signature. It consists of eight systems of two staves each. The first system shows the initial entry of the first flute with a melodic line and the second flute with a rest. The second system shows the second flute's entry. The third system features a complex rhythmic pattern in the first flute. The fourth system continues the development of the first flute's theme. The fifth system shows the first flute playing a sixteenth-note pattern while the second flute provides harmonic support. The sixth system features a dense sixteenth-note texture in the first flute. The seventh system shows the first flute playing a melodic line with a fermata. The eighth system concludes with a sixteenth-note pattern in the first flute and a more active line in the second flute.
