EVER THE WINDS

About the artist

Composer now handicapped, I can't play any instrument (pipes, flutes and medieval fiddles which are hung up on the walls, for decoration). Scores (bourrées, mazurkas, waltzes, jigs, reels...., in a word dances) are increasing uselessly. If you entrust an E-mail address to me, I can send the audio in a better format than mp3 : wav.

.So, I decided to give them. These scores were written for the harp but it is playable with fiddle, flute, tin-whistle, mandoline, etc... Ah a big detail there's no copyrights on my scores. I can send audio in a better format than Dominique Gauquelin

Qualification: Fifty years of music but I need a second life for composition...

EVER THE WINDS

As I went a walking way down by the greenwood
Down where the ivy and laurel entwine
I heard a bird singing a sad, plaintive love song
He mourned for his true love as I mourned for mine

Chorus:

Ever the winds keep on changing their journey
Ever the waves keep on changing the sea
Ever green summer keeps changing to autumn
My true love has changed, but there's no change in me

I brought my love flowers all tied up with ribbons
Soon the sweet flowers were faded and gone
Like the flowers, my true love's affections have withered
Which leaves me alone here to pine and to mourn

Chorus

My constant companions are sadness and sorrow
Trouble has never forsaken me yet
But wherever I go 'til my days are all numbered
The love of my soul, I will never forget

Chorus
