Papa I'm so sad and lonely, sobbed a tearful little child.
When the girl received this message, coming over the telephone,

Since dear mamma's gone to heaven, Papa darling you've not smiled;
How her heart thrilled in that moment, and the wires seemed to moan;

"LAST NIGHT AS THE MOON WAS SHINING," one of Mr. Harris' late efforts, contains that slow sweet melody which make his songs contagious. Try it on your piano.
I will speak to her and tell her, That we want her to come home;
I will answer just to please her,—Yes, dear heart, I'll soon come home;

Just you listen and I'll call her Through the telephone:
Kiss me, ma-ma, kiss your darling, Through the telephone:

CHORUS.

Hello Central, give me heaven, For my ma-ma's there;

"MUST WE SAY GOOD BYE FOREVER, NELLIE DEAR?"
The title suggests a beautiful song narrative, which is carried out in Mr. Harris usual masterful style. The melody is...
You can find her with the angels on the golden stair;

She'll be glad it's me who's speaking, call her, won't you please;

For I want to surely tell her, We're so lonely here.
