Voice.

Something mighty sweet a bout it

What's the name of that mel o dy?

Piano.

Something hard to beat a bout it

Oh What's the name of that melody?

What a pity not to know the name of such a pretty ditty

It always

seems to inter rupt you when you're talk ing,
It seems to lift you from your feet and start you walking,
When those cellos and fiddles start

into fiddle that middle part Clouds, fears, sighs, tears, disappear as if by Magic. The 5165-6 The Magic Melody.

Keep moving or you'll ruin it and just so you'll know we'll show you all the late improved in those syncopated movements, Oh you start kind of slow till you know how to throw your shoulders in the air. Then you slide and you glide 'round the room in an at-ti-tude of "I don't care!"

You'll dance and you'll sway and you'll think and you'll talk to it, You'll work and you'll play, and you'll drink and you'll walk to it, You can't get a-way from that Magic Mel-o-dy.

5165-5 The Magic Melody. This song is not a part of the Score of "Nobody Home!"

THEY DIDN'T BELIEVE ME

Words by HERBERT REYNOLDS

Refrain. Andante moderato.

And when I told them how beautiful you are
And when I told them how wonderful you are

They didn't believe me! They didn't believe me!
They didn't believe me! They didn't believe me!

Your lips, your eyes, your cheeks, your hair are in a
