

Piano / Voice.

Harry J. Lincoln

1878 - 1937

*I Met You, I Love You,
I Want You*

I Met You, I Love You, I Want You

Music: Harry J. Lincoln
Words: F. Warne Wilson
1914

Intro.

Piano mf

9

The sil - v'ry moon, one night in June on lov - ers' lane shown bright, Two
The sil - v'ry moon, that shown in June has long since turned to gold, Those sweet hearts strolled, a sto - ry told that brought su - preme de - light; For eyes once bright, are dim to - night two sweet-hearts have grown old; Their cu - pid's dart had pierced a heart, A wed - ding in June time; A love - lane strolls have end - ed now, But to their mem - 'ries cling Those maid - en drooped her head and said, "My dear, I will be thine."

12

14

16

words so dear sound sweet and clear, They hear their daught - er sing:

18

I met you, I love you, I want you, You're the vis - ion I see in my

Chorus

25

dreams; Your sweet face is ev - er be - fore me, I can - not for - get you, it seems; _____ The first time we 36

31

met, I re - mem - ber _____ The love - light in your eyes of 41

blue, _____ And I've longed for the day When to you I could say, I want you be - cause I love you. _____

46