Words: Charles D. Meigs, 1917
Music: Elizabeth M. Shields

This piece is arranged for SATB and piano.

I am asking for a $3 donation for this piece and you may make as many copies as you would like. For paying customers, I will reduce or crop a copy for you.

If your choir performs this piece, I would love a copy of it.

This was one of my mother's favorite songs. She sang it to me often and it was a very important part of my social justice formation. She had an old recording of Tennessee Ernie Ford singing it and while she was in a morphine induced coma, I played that record for her right before she entered into new life.
