Go Out Into The World

Music by Malcolm Kogut

Based on Psalm 117

This piece is arranged for SATB and piano. I composed it for cantor, choir and congregation to be sung in responsorial form whereas the cantor sings the verses and invites the congregation and choir to join in on the refrain.

I am asking for a $3 donation for this piece and you may make as many copies as you would like. If your choir performs this piece, I would love a copy of it.

This is a very upbeat piece and sounds great with either a drum set or several percussionists playing hand instruments. On the mp3, to give you a basic idea of how it goes, I played the melody the first time through then the piano part for the second verse.

The vocal line is written in a single staff with a key signature of one flat and a 4/4 time signature. The lyrics are: "Go out in - to the world and tell the Good News." The melody is simple and follows the natural inflection of the words. The system ends with a fermata over the final note.

The second system of the piano accompaniment continues the piece. It features the same eighth-note accompaniment in the left hand and a melodic line in the right hand. The system concludes with a fermata over the final chord.

Go out in - to the world and tell the Good News.

The first system of the score consists of two staves. The top staff is a vocal line in G major (one flat) with lyrics: "Go out in - to the world and tell the Good News." The bottom staff is a piano accompaniment. Above the vocal staff, the chords A7, Dmin, D7, Gmin, C7, and C7 are indicated. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line in the left hand and chords in the right hand.
