"Blessed Be the Lord Our God" - Responses

BLESSED BE:

Music by Mitchell A. Nicholls
27 March 2020

The Lord our God:

By whose grace we are yet a - live.

This musical notation is for the first response, 'The Lord our God'. It is written in 4/4 time and consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The melody is primarily in the treble clef, with the bass clef providing a simple harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are: 'By whose grace we are yet a - live.'

His Son Jesus Christ:

By whose ri - sing we are set free.

This musical notation is for the second response, 'His Son Jesus Christ'. It is written in 4/4 time and consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. A triplet of eighth notes is indicated above the first measure of the treble staff. The lyrics are: 'By whose ri - sing we are set free.'

The Spirit of God:

In whom is our hope and our joy.

This musical notation is for the third response, 'The Spirit of God'. It is written in 4/4 time and consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The melody is primarily in the treble clef, with the bass clef providing a simple harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are: 'In whom is our hope and our joy.'
