The score is written for guitar in 12/4 time, featuring a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of eight staves of music, each with a measure number in the left margin. The notation includes various guitar-specific techniques such as triplets, slurs, and accents. Section markers are placed above the staves: 'A' in a box at the start of the first staff, 'BIII' above the third staff, 'BI' above the fifth staff, 'BIII' above the seventh staff, and 'BII' and 'BI' above the eighth staff. A circled '5' is located below the first staff, and a '5' is below the second staff. A double bar line with repeat dots is at the end of the first staff. A hairpin crescendo is shown between the first and second staves.

The image shows a guitar sheet music page for 'Bulita page 3'. It contains eight staves of music, numbered 17 through 24. The music is written in a single system with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature. The notation includes various guitar-specific symbols such as bar lines, repeat signs, and fingering numbers (4 and 0). Above measures 18, 19, 20, 21, and 22, there are labels: BVIII, BVI, BV, BIII, and BI, which likely refer to specific guitar techniques or positions. Measure 24 ends with a double bar line and the instruction 'D.C. al Fine'. The page is sourced from free-scores.com.
