The musical score is arranged for Violin and Guitar. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature (C). The tempo is marked as approximately 150 beats per minute. The score is divided into six systems, each containing two staves. The first system shows the initial melodic line in the violin and a rhythmic accompaniment in the guitar. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The third system introduces first and second endings for both instruments. The fourth system continues the main melody and accompaniment. The fifth system shows the continuation of the melody and accompaniment. The sixth system concludes the piece with first and second endings for both instruments.
