English

Youth talks and dreams so much
Of dances, gallops, and parties;
Suddenly it reaches a false goal,
Then we hear it sigh and complain.

Soon the throat hurts, and soon the chest hurts,
Lost is the heavenly delight.
"Just this time, health, come back to me!"
Thus pleads from heaven the hopeful glance.

Recently a girl thought, in her sadness,
That her last hour had come.
But the wheel of fate did not stand still
Now joys are dawning for her more beautifully.

So friends raise the joyous song:
"May dear Irene live long, to be sure,
May she often think of false Fate,
But may her cheerful gaze never grow sad."
