I learned the piano at 18 years old, following the encouragements of my closer listening to me improvising on the piano family. For 8 years of courses, my abyssal gaps in musical theory has been compensated by a motivation without end and by the working hours. Among my favorite musicians, I count Mozart and Brahms. I took an immense pleasure in playing the Sonata Opus Kv 331 of Mozart and Intermezzo 118 N°2 de Brahms. In parallel, I had fun to compose of the melodies for piano alone and quickly with other instruments, provided with a keyboard and other sequencers. I currently have a Main keyboard and a expandor Roland JV10-10. I finally chose sequencer MAGIX (very simple and very convivial for an amateur) and, beore all, has discovered the virtual instruments which clear me towards new ... (more online)

Violons

The image displays a violin score for a piece by Yves Shapira. The score is written in 4/4 time and consists of 12 staves of musical notation. The notation includes various note values, rests, and dynamic markings. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature. The music features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together, and includes some triplet markings. There are also several measures with rests, particularly in the later staves. The score is presented in a clean, black-and-white format.
