I learned the piano at 18 years old, following the encouragements of my closer listening to me improvising on the piano family. For 8 years of courses, my abyssal gaps in musical theory has been compensated by a motivation without end and by the working hours. Among my favorite musicians, I count Mozart and Brahms. I took an immense pleasure in playing the Sonata Opus Kv 331 of Mozart and Intermezzo 118 N°2 de Brahms. In parallel, I had fun to compose of the melodies for piano alone and quickly with other instruments, provided with a keyboard and other sequencers. I currently have a Main keyboard and a expandor Roland JV10-10. I finally chose sequencer MAGIX (very simple and very convivial for an amateur) and, beore all, has discovered the virtual instruments which clear me towards new ... (more online)

Violoncelle

The image displays a musical score for a cello, consisting of ten staves of music. The score is written in bass clef with a 3/4 time signature. The key signature is one flat (B-flat). The music begins with a whole rest on the first staff, followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes across the subsequent staves. The notation includes various rhythmic values, accidentals (flats), and phrasing slurs. The piece concludes with a final whole note on the tenth staff.
