I learned the piano at 18 years old, following the encouragements of my closer listening to me improvising on the piano family. For 8 years of courses, my abyssal gaps in musical theory has been compensated by a motivation without end and by the working hours. Among my favorite musicians, I count Mozart and Brahms. I took an immense pleasure in playing the Sonata Opus Kv 331 of Mozart and Intermezzo 118 N°2 de Brahms. In parallel, I had fun to compose of the melodies for piano alone and quickly with other instruments, provided with a keyboard and other sequencers. I currently have a Main keyboard and a expandor Roland JV10-10. I finally chose sequencer MAGIX (very simple and very convivial for an amateur) and, beore all, has discovered the virtual instruments which clear me towards new ... (more online)

Clarinete (à transposer de "piano" à clarinete)

The musical score is written for a Clarinet in 4/4 time. It consists of ten staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The music is characterized by a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the lower register, with a more melodic line in the upper register. The melody includes several triplet markings, indicated by a bracket with the number '3' above the notes. The piece concludes with a final cadence on the tenth staff.

The image displays a musical score for a single melodic line in treble clef. The music is characterized by a fast, rhythmic eighth-note pattern. It begins with a few measures of rests followed by a series of eighth notes, some beamed in pairs. The score includes several triplet markings, where three notes are grouped together under a bracket with the number '3' above it. The key signature is one flat (B-flat). The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

The image displays a single system of ten musical staves, likely for guitar. The notation is written in a single clef (treble clef) and includes various rhythmic values such as eighth, sixteenth, and quarter notes, as well as rests. There are several accidentals (sharps and flats) throughout the piece. The music features a mix of melodic lines and rhythmic patterns. A triplet of eighth notes is explicitly marked in the final staff. The overall style is that of a contemporary or modern guitar piece.
