The musical score is arranged for Oboe and three Guitars. It is written in a common time signature (C) and a key signature of one flat (Bb). The tempo is marked as approximately 120 beats per minute. The score is divided into three systems, each containing four staves. The first system includes the Oboe and three Guitars. The second system includes the Oboe and three Guitars, with first and second endings indicated by '1.' and '2.' above the staves. The third system includes the Oboe and three Guitars, ending with a double bar line. The Oboe part features a melodic line with various note values and rests. The three Guitars provide harmonic support with chords and rhythmic patterns, including some triplets and accents.
