When a poor man came in sight, Gathering winter fuel.

When a poor man came in sight, Gathering winter fuel.

When a poor man came in sight, Gathering winter fuel.

TENOR SOLO

Hither, page, and stand by me, If thou know'st it, telling,

Yonder peasant, who is he? Where and what his dwelling?

SOPRANE SOLO

Sire, he lives a good league hence Underneath the mountain;

Right against the forest fence by Saint Agnes fountain.

BASSE SOLO

Bring me flesh, and bring me wine, Bring me pine-logs hither:

Thou and I will see him dine, when we bear them thither.
Page and monarch forth they went, Forth they went together;

Through the rude wind's wild lament and the bitter weather.

Sire, the night is darker now, And the wind blows stronger;

fails my heart, I know not how, I can go no longer.

Mark my footsteps, good my page; Tread thou in them boldly;

Thou shalt find the winter's rage freeze thy blood less coldly.
CHORUS

In the master's steps he trod, where the snow lay diminished;

Heat was in the very sod which the saint had printed.

Therefore, Christian men, be sure, wealth or rank possessing, ye who now will bless the poor, shall yourselves find blessing.
