Prelude No.20

A Small Orange Cat

There is an orange cat at my house. In theory, this is not my cat. It does not have an owner. It enjoys travelling from each house to each house around my house area. However, I am the cat's owner in practice because I give him food and place to live even though I did not limit it to stay only at my house. It is a cute and friendly cat that likes to play with me. So, the impression desires me to compose this short piece.

In composition, this piece reminds me a piano piece "A Puppy" from Yamaha Music School which I played when I was a small child because I am writing music about cat and I am a teacher at Yamaha Music School at the time I compose this piece.

The following picture is the orange cat I mentioned.
