Marsch in F-dur

a cura di
Maurizio Machella

Johann Sebastian Bach
BWV Anh. 146

(Allegro ma non tanto)

The first system of musical notation for the march. It consists of a grand staff with a treble clef and a bass clef. The key signature has one flat (F major). The time signature is common time (C). The music begins with a treble clef chord of F4, A4, C5, and G4, marked with a '3' for a triplet. This is followed by a repeat sign. The bass line starts with a quarter rest, then a quarter note F2, and continues with a rhythmic pattern of quarter notes.

The second system of musical notation. It continues the grand staff from the first system. The treble clef part features a triplet of eighth notes (F4, A4, C5) and a triplet of eighth notes (G4, F4, E4). The bass line continues with quarter notes and eighth notes.

The third system of musical notation. The treble clef part has a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass line continues with a steady quarter-note accompaniment. A first ending bracket is shown above the treble clef staff.

The fourth system of musical notation. It features a second ending bracket above the treble clef staff. The music concludes with a final chord in the treble clef.

The fifth system of musical notation. The treble clef part has a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass line continues with a steady quarter-note accompaniment.

The sixth system of musical notation. The treble clef part has a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes. The bass line continues with a steady quarter-note accompaniment. The piece ends with a final chord in the treble clef.
