Alto Recorder

Bassoon

The first system of music shows the beginning of the piece. The Alto Recorder part starts with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 6/8 time signature. The Bassoon part starts with a bass clef, the same key signature, and the same time signature. Both parts feature a repeat sign at the end of the second measure.

The second system of music continues the piece. It features a triplet of eighth notes in the Alto Recorder part at the beginning of the first measure. The Bassoon part has a similar triplet in the first measure. The system ends with a repeat sign.

The third system of music contains two measures. Each measure has a first ending (marked '1.') and a second ending (marked '2.'). The first ending leads back to the beginning of the system, while the second ending leads to the next system.

The fourth system of music contains two measures. The Alto Recorder part has a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure. The Bassoon part has a similar triplet in the first measure. The system ends with a repeat sign.

The fifth system of music contains two measures. Each measure has a first ending (marked '1.') and a second ending (marked '2.'). The first ending leads back to the beginning of the system, while the second ending leads to the next system.
